School Events

Recruiting Event at Children's Museum turnout was less than normal. Stroup is continuing to recruit with school tours and reaching out to our local preschools.

Kindergarten is integrated presently. Our campus is 72% hispanic and 28% other. By district standards we are considered intergrated.

Game Night is next week November 19. Student Council and SWAT will have booths along with food trucks, trivia game,El Minuto, and assorted gift bags to take home.

MSA application is being finalized.

Principal Report

Budget: Tax Credit is funding tutoring so any tax credit donations are necessary to keep the program.

Currently $7000          $13,000 deficit

Competition for teachers to get tax credit donations in the works.

Las Posadas barricades still needed to be covered for event.

Pueblo, Holiday Elementary Folkorico, etc. Participating in our evenings events

ADE application which had been sent in has not been announced.
Results should be here Friday, November 15.

Extended Day losing programs due to lack of teachers: robotics

Zenaida Duran requesting a scholarship for her daughter to attend afterschool tutoring.

Motion to approve: Erin Duffy moves to cover tuition for Ariana Duran to attend afterschool tutoring effective immediately.

2nd motion: Shaun Edwards

All in favor: 8 Yes 0 No

Motion passed

Adjournment: 5:32p.m.
